HE DREW A KNIFE.

Bad Blood Engendered in the Meeting of the Missouri Delegation.

St. Louis, Mo., June 15.—The bad blood between Filley and Kerens factions in the Missouri delegation developed a bloody turn before the delegation had been in session an hour and a half. Mayor P. D. Hastain, of Sedalia, drew a knife on Delegate Berry in the secret session but was seized and prevented from making a personal attack. The Kerens faction had been outvoting the Filley people on several issues raised.

Berry made a sharp, personal attack on Hastain. The latter, pale as death at the words flung at him by Berry, drew from his pocket a knife, which warned the other committeemen that it was time for them to act. They pushed in between the angry factions, separated them and the fight was over for the present.
